

Spanish American War

Dickinson and the surrounding area was home to many soldiers who would volunteer to fight with the First North Dakota Volunteers, which was a forerunner of the 164th Infantry Regiment. Dickinson area soldiers are seen on the streets of Dickinson, ND in this photograph taken prior to departing for the Spanish American War.