

Development Services consists of a variety of departments that are housed primarily in City Hall and serve the public through consistent interactions that primarily focus on development of subdivisions and buildings. Departments included in Development Services are: Buildings & Codes, Engineering, and Planning.

View PDF